Says WILL ROGERS

BEVERLY HILLS.—Well all I know is just what I read in the papers. Been reading a lot about India lately on account of this Conference they have been holding in London. When India gets a little uneasy and unruly why England gives them a Conference. They invite em all to London and the King meets em, and they have a few public functions and they all wear their turbans and baggy silk pants, and all are allowed to make speeches, and the papers make over em, and they go home.

They come for freedom and go home with press notices. They are pretty near like American tax payers in that respect, just give em a little voice some time, and make em think they are getting some place and they go home happy. Well this last one in London was the biggest one in a long time, for the unrest was the biggest. Conferences are always in proportion to public discord.

The King made a public speech to em just like he did for the nations at the Disarmament Conference last January. You know those English are smart, they know how to handle more different kinds of people than anybody. Now we can't do that, that's why we are no good as Colonizers. But Britain can go in anywhere and they got all the pomp and glory that most Natives like. Then they are smart enough to always make them think they are doing part of the management of their country themselves. When as a matter of fact they won't be doing anything, but they can be made to look like it.

Now this Indian Conference, with over 50 Indian Princes, controlling over half of India—well for them to get to London and be made over by Royalty and the British Government why that just sits them off pretty for another few years. Course they are not looking for complete Independence for India, for that would do away with their own feudal power, for each one of those Babes where he comes from is the "Borah" of his hills. Bill on his native head never had any more power than they do. Some of this birds rule over a municipality as big as one of our big States like New York. All the taxes and toll are paid to them individually, they don't have to be bothered with an election every four years to see who is the head man. He is born the head man and stays "Him" till he passes out.

India is full of caste. They got more Caste than we have Commis-sions. They got one cast that is called the "Untouchables" they are not even allowed to let their shadow fall across one of the upper classes. We can't imagine it over here for we just have two or three different ones, the Republicans and the Democrats. The Democrats have always occupied our lowest position. They could let their shadow fall anywhere but in a selected official position, they were kinder like the "Untouchables."

This fellow Ghandi wasnt there. I think they got him in jail again. When there aint any more news from India why the English are jailing Ghandi. He is an odd kind of a duck, we havent got anyone over here to in any way compare with him. He is looked on as a kind of a prophet. I guess Coolidge would come nearer fitting him in that respect than anyone else. Then he is a Preacher too, kinder like Bishop Cannon when he was feeling good and sort of combined Politics and preaching. But Ghandi always preached "No violence." He always said agree to everything England wants, but dont do it, sort of a synthetic resistance.

In build and physique from the looks of his pictures, we havent got anybody like him unless it is Will Hays. Bill is set up a good deal like Ghandi from the architectural standpoint. He has got a following a good deal like William Jennings Bryan used to have. They sure believe in him. We havent got anyone that has a following comparable to him here now. If either one of our "Classes" had one like him, they would run em for President. Well anyhow they didnt take him to the Conference, he would have stole all the thunder from the gold Turbanned Rajahs.

Now Britain aint going to give them any more "Home rule" than we are going to give the Farmers relief. They will just have a big time and all go home, and use the old Alabi like we do with the Philippines. "You are not ready for your Independence yet."

When we got ours, if history aint an awful liar, we sure wasent in much shape to handle it. "You are hungry, but you are not able to eat yet."

ATLANTA FIVES EASILY DEFEATED

The basketball season was decisively and satisfactorily opened last Thursday night when two local teams jolted opposition from Atlanta with one-sided victories. The High School took the season's first scalp, winning over Atlanta High by a 29-11 score, and the All-City pasted Atlanta's hopeful but impotent Independents with a 43-7 beating.

The High School Northern Lights started slowly. At one period in the second quarter the score was tied at 3-all, and the halfway station found Grayling holding an indecisive 7-4 margin. The second half settled the game as far as score was concerned.

Atlanta did not present very stern opposition. Rather lost on the big floor they had no coordinate offense and really weren't dangerous. The Northern Lights showed early season rough edges, which no doubt could be expected in a team which has had so little experience, however, these ragged features of play present a more serious light, and Coach Cushman promises his charges plenty of hard work of the kind necessary to iron out those flaws which will have to go before the hard games of the future. The team showed plenty of potential ability and no opponent can afford to take them lightly.

In the second game of the double bill the Atlanta Independents found the ax wielded by the Grayling Lumberjacks far too keen and collapsed under a heavy count. The Grayling team, clad in very snappy new uniforms that will see plenty of duty this season, rolled up the count in a fashion too steady to be interesting. Even at that the Lumberjacks cashed in on but a small per cent of their opportunities in their offense. They will have a formidable team, and contrary to the rule for independent squads of this type, are taking their work seriously. Coach Cushman directs their play.

The Grayling band was on hand to keep things pepped up and their efforts were decidedly appreciated by a very good crowd.

A Roy Milnes refereed and handled both games in very acceptable style. The games were remarkably free from fouls.

WOMAN'S CLUB NOTES

The Woman's club had their meeting on December 1st at the home of Mrs. McNamara. Members responded to roll call with "My longest trip or place of interest visited." The program consisted of three papers, "The Panama Canal, and Yellowstone Park," by Mrs. Sorenson, "Interesting facts about London and Monte Carlo," by Mrs. Alexander and a talk on Hawaiian customs with special reference to their music by Miss McAllister.

A committee was appointed to confer with the Board of Trade committee for Christmas plans.

On December 8th the club met at the home of Mrs. Cushman where the members responded to roll call of religious pictures. A book review "The Man Nobody Knows," prepared by Mrs. Laura Olson, was read by Mrs. Giegling and Mrs. Webb. Members made their subscription to the Red Cross and plans were made for a Christmas party.

TAXES ARE DUE

I will be ready to collect taxes December 10th and will have headquarters at the office of the Judge of Probate at the court-house, Tuesdays and Saturdays.

PAY DOG TAX TO CO. TREAS.

Dog taxes are now payable at the office of the County Treasurer at the Court House. Pay now and avoid penalty. WM. FERGUSON, County Treasurer.

FLAMING YOUTH

"Oh, gimme a kiss" a pretty school girl in winter sport togs, and with glowing cheeks and sparkling eyes, was heard to exclaim, as she rushed with outstretched arms toward a boy friend on Main street one day last week, and the onlooker stopped expectantly—but the schoolgirl's hands only went to the coat-pockets of the youth to extract one of those wax-paper-wrapped sweet molasses taffies called "kisses"—and the spectator turned disappointedly away and went into the grocery and asked the young lady clerk to give him a pound of "dates."

A REAL GOLF FAN

The "boss" spent Thanksgiving and the week-end out of the village, and the last words of his host's invitation were "Be sure to bring your golf sticks." Well, he took them, and as The Space Filler stoked the furnace and shoveled snow at the editorial domicile Thanksgiving Day he wondered to what use the golf sticks were put on that trip and as to their utility in breaking a path through the snow—but anyway that host must be considered as one you would call "a real golf fan," or else he was sadly mistaken as to approaching weather conditions when he sent the invitation.

BRINGING HOME THE BACON

Among the numerous cars going South on U. S.-27 on their way homeward at the close of the deer-hunting season last Sunday was one on whose front bumper reclined a nice fat dressed "porker." The question that arises is—Did the hunter forget to wait till he saw the horns—or was it merely that the market price of bacon was less than that of venison?

EVEN IN THE ANIMAL KINGDOM

Those who favor the adoption of masculine dress and manners by the feminine sex should take notice of this. A hunter up here in Northern Michigan recently shot a doe from whose head protruded eight-inch antlers. He was in doubt as to whether or not he had violated the game law and consulted the game warden and conservation officers. These gentlemen ruled that as the doe chose to appear in public during the open season, her head adorned with antlers which are supposed to be exclusively the distinguishing mark of the licensed-to-be-killed buck, she must take her chance with the males, and the hunter was permitted to keep his kill and no penalty attached.

ODD IDEA OF A TREAT

A church in Charlotte, Mich., issues an invitation through the weekly newspaper to the public to come and hear an ex-prison chaplain who has witnessed the execution of twenty-five people, including Hickman, Ruth Snyder, Judd Gray, and Chapman, stating he will talk on his experience in prison work, the Canyon City riot, the hangman's noose and the electric chair—and closing with "It will be A RARE TREAT for our city."

A BEAR STORY

The following excerpt from an article by J. C. Gilbert in the Detroit Sunday Times may be of interest to readers of the Avalanche: "Four bears were killed near Dick's camp, two mother bears and two cubs and MANY OTHERS WERE SEEN (the capitals are ours.) so it would seem that game is coming back to Otsego County, after a long period. The first eighteen years of my life I lived there when the country was solid hardwood from Gaylord to just north of Frederic. In all my hunting in those days I never saw indications of bear, but now THEY ARE QUITE PLENTIFUL both east and west of the railroad between Gaylord and Grayling."

GETTING SCARCE

Not long ago, in taking leave of a friend, an old gentleman was heard to remark: "Well, goodbye. Take care of yourself and be good—for by what I see in the papers good people are getting scarce."

THE HUNTER

The hunter risks his life and goods And hies himself into the woods; Then for two hundred bucks, I guess, He gets one buck, or even less. —Jay Wye in Detroit News. The Space Filler clipped the above from the Sunday paper and refers it to at least one sportsman who came up from the Automobile City to hunt the white-tailed deer in Crawford county.

SCHLITZ AND SLOTS

The confiscating of the slot machines in this village by the State police this week, brings to mind a witticism by one of the old-time minstrels on the occasion of his first appearance in our town away back in the pre-Volstead days. The performance was a little late in getting started, and as he appeared on the stage he came out to the footlights to make sort of apology and stated that upon his arrival in the city he had hurried to the nearest drink emporium, intending to deposit a portion of his surplus lucre in the slot machines, "but," he added, "after entering the place, before I could get to the slot machines, I got so full of Schlitz that I couldn't see the slots." If you fail to see the point of this joke refer it to some old-timer who is familiar with the brands that "made Milwaukee famous."

GOODFELLOWSHIP CLUB NOTES

The Goodfellowship club met Monday evening with Mrs. C. G. Clappert. Meeting called to order by the president, Mrs. Fred Welsh. Roll call. Current events. Mrs. C. R. Keyport read a very good article on South America. Meeting adjourned.

CONSERVATION OFFICERS GOT THEIR MAN

The Canadian Mounted are not the only people who "get their man." If you doubt this ask Pearl Shepler, erstwhile muskrat trapper of Ingham County. For several years conservation officers have been after him for illegal trapping operations. Fate overtook him on November 6th last. Now he is a resident of the Ingham County jail where he will remain for thirty days. He is also poorer by $9.90 court costs, and faces the alternative of reimbursing the state to the extent of $128.62 or spending another thirty days in jail, according to the pronouncement of Justice Wm. Seelye of Mason, Ingham County.

SCHOOL NOTES

Girl Scouts Have First Meeting

The Girl Scouts held their first meeting December the eighth. Some new officers were elected, Dorothy Johnson for secretary and Lillian Ahman for treasurer.

Miss Lewis has made a very successful Scout Master. She kept the girls well organized while she has been the leader.

Students Have "Movie"

Believe It or Not, there was a "Santa Claus" up at school Tuesday afternoon. The whole student body saw him when they were called into the assembly hall to gaze upon a wonderful picture full of scenes of the Arctic, ice, snow, and reindeer, the home of "Santa Claus." We all enjoyed it very much. The picture was brought here by the courtesy of the Bay City Times.

Fourth Grade

—Miss Hermann, teacher—

We went upstairs into the assembly room yesterday where we saw a movie showing Santa in his own land. We liked it very much.

We started our work in geography this week. We have a new book called "World Folks."

Wideawake Town and Sleepy Town are even in the attendance contest.

We are working on our Christmas program which is to be given December 19th. We will be glad to have the parents come to school on that day.

We are wearing Good Posture tags this week and are hoping we will be able to keep them all week.

Fred Westerholm.

Honesty

Nearly all people are honest. That is a nice thing to think about, isn't it?

Why are most people honest? Have you ever thought about that? It is because when they were very, very small they learned never to touch the tiniest thing that belonged to anyone else.

Honesty is not only a great thing but necessary. Everyone must learn that big lesson. "To be honest every minute of the hour, every hour of the day," is a good thought to remember.

When we hear of people being honorable; that means that they are honest and truthful, for honesty and truth are twins. They always go together.

It is fine to be trusted; to know that others think well of us.

Did you ever hear the poem of the "Garden People" who were talking about a little friend called Gerald one soft summer evening?

One verse goes like this:

"He is truthful, sang the sweet warm wind, 'And honest,' crooned the birds, 'We trust him,' murmured all the flowers. In loving flower words, 'Isn't it nice to have such things said about us?'"

CONSERVATION OFFICERS GOT THEIR MAN

The Canadian Mounted are not the only people who "get their man." If you doubt this ask Pearl Shepler, erstwhile muskrat trapper of Ingham County.

For several years conservation officers have been after him for illegal trapping operations. Fate overtook him on November 6th last. Now he is a resident of the Ingham County jail where he will remain for thirty days. He is also poorer by $9.90 court costs, and faces the alternative of reimbursing the state to the extent of $128.62 or spending another thirty days in jail, according to the pronouncement of Justice Wm. Seelye of Mason, Ingham County.

BAY CITY 'Y' BASKET SHOOTERS HERE SAT.

HIGH SCHOOL TO PLAY TEAM FROM C. S. N. C.

Saturday night will offer Grayling sport fans a double bill of basketball when both the High school and Lumberjacks take the floor against strong opposition. The Northern Lights tangle with an intramural team from Central State Normal of Mt. Pleasant while the Lumberjacks tackle the tough Bay City "Y" team that is touring the north country. This card should prove to be attractive to followers of the two local teams and ought to furnish hard enough opposition for anyone.

The intramural team of collegians features three ex-star tossers from Cadillac high school. The Vikings are famous for fighting teams and this endorsement should be enough. It is true that an intramural sports program reaches good athletes, and any school the size of Central is bound to have lots of good talent not competing on the Varsity five. The Northern Lights should have a plenty tough assignment against their older and more experienced opponents.

The Bay City "Y" is on a tour of Northern Michigan, and is taking on anyone that can provide them with good opposition. They rate a smooth and clever aggregation and should keep the Lumberjacks moving at top speed, if they can hope to pull out on top at all. The night before their local appearance the "Y" squad takes on Cheboygan.

The Farmers' Institute of this county held here last Friday and Saturday was the finest and best ever held here. The attendance averaged 67 for the six sessions and the exhibits of farm produce, grain, fruit and vegetables, was pronounced by the speakers to be as fine as could be produced in the southern part of the state. The association voted to send the exhibit to Saginaw so as to have it exhibited at the State Grange this week, then to ship it to the Agricultural College and exhibit it at the State Round-up Institute, to be held there the latter part of February.

Jason Woodman of Paw Paw, Peter Gilbert of Sterling, R. D. Bailey of Gaylord and Mrs. E. J. Creyts of Lansing were the state speakers and they were simply fine. The high school came forward and assisted with singing and recitations which were highly appreciated.

At the business meeting held Saturday forenoon the following officers were elected: President, S. B. Brott, Wellington; Sec'y-Treas., Hugo Schreiber, Jr., Pere Cheney; delegate to state round-up, S. ### NO CHANGE IN SPEARING LAWS

The winter season of 1930-31 brings no change in the fish spearing laws and with a year's experience with the spearing regulations there ought to be a sharp decrease in the number of violations of these laws during the next few months, according to the Fish Division of the Department of Conservation.

The regulations concerning winter spearing in inland lakes and spring spearing in the non-trout streams were adopted by the 1929 legislature and were in force for the first time last winter and spring.

To remind those planning to use a spear during the coming season, the Fish Division has issued the following brief digest of the spearing laws:

Spears may be used in the inland lakes during the times when the lakes are frozen. The species of fish that may be taken by spear in the lakes are: Pickerel, (grass or great northern pike), mullet, suckers, and redhorse.

Lakes or ponds created by the backwaters of a dam or artificial barrier on a stream are part of the stream and are governed by the regulations applying to that stream.

Conforming with the sentiment of the legislature which declared all inland lakes open to spearing when these waters are frozen over, the Conservation Commission last year refused to grant petitions seeking the closing of local waters to spearing.

Spearing is not permitted in any stream before April 1. From that time until May 31, spearing for non-game fish including bullheads, carp, catfish, cisco, dogfish, garfish, smelt, suckers, and whitefish, is permitted from non-trout streams. Spearing is permitted for pike in non-trout streams from May 1 to May 31.

Michigan has 425,000 small game and deer hunters; from 5,000 to 10,000 of these each year are "recruits."

FIRE HAZARD TAGS EFFECTIVE

The success of the "Fire Hazard" tags placed on all automobiles entering the upper peninsula by the Straits of Mackinac last summer and during the periods of intense forest fire danger, has assured continuance of this practice next year, according to the Forest Fire Division of the Conservation Department.

Last summer, as an experiment, the Forest Fire Division with the cooperation of the State Highway Department placed tags on automobiles entering the northern part of the state by way of the state ferries when weather conditions made fire hazards acute. The tags asked caution on the part of the motorist and his passengers and suggested ways of preventing fires.

A noticeable increase in carefulness on the part of motorists resulted from the use of these tags, it was said. The tags were so designed as to serve as souvenirs.

SOME AMERICAN OBSERVATIONS

—By Jay Taylor.

Some of our high financiers are still exclaiming that most of the eight billion German international bonds will eventually be sold in the United States and thus enable Germany to pay at once all of her reparations to the allies. If then Germany should decide, because of illegality or other reasons, not to pay these bonds, what a good joke it would be on the United States and how thoroughly some of our European friends, who had already gotten their money, would enjoy the joke.

A GREAT deal of talent is lost in the world for want of a little courage. Every day sends to their graves obscure men whom timidity prevented from making a first effort; who, if they could have been induced to begin, would in all probability have gone great lengths in the career of fame. The fact is, that to do anything in the world worth doing, we must not stand back shivering and thinking of the cold and danger, but jump in and scramble through as well as we can. It will not do to be perpetually calculating risks and adjusting nice chances... a man waits, and doubts, and consults his brother, and his particular friends, till one day he "two" finds he is sixty years old and that he has lost so much time in consulting cousins and friends that he has no more time to follow their advice. —Sydney Smith.

A couple of State Police slipped into Grayling Tuesday afternoon and raided several Grayling business places for slot machines.

The regular meeting of the graduate nurses of the Grayling district was held at Mercy Hospital Tuesday afternoon with a good attendance.

The ladies of the Bridge club were very beautifully entertained by Mrs. A. J. Joseph at luncheon Saturday afternoon. Small tables were placed through the rooms on which the luncheon was served. The holiday green and red was the color scheme. Mrs. Oscar Hanson won the high score prize and Mrs. Harold McNeven the guest prize. Other guests of the club were Mrs. R. B. Howard and Mrs. Harold Jarman.

Mrs. Emory Craft was hostess to the Birthday club last Thursday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed sewing on a quilt which they will soon have ready to sell. The ladies also enjoyed contests. Mrs. Russell Vallad captured both prizes. The Club presented Mrs. Vallad and Mrs. Neal McDaniels with lovely birthday gifts. There were eleven members and two guests present. Mrs. Craft assisted by the committee, served a delicious lunch late in the afternoon. The Club will meet with Mrs. Axel Larson this Thursday afternoon.

Post offices will make every effort to handle the Christmas mails without congestion and delay, but owing to the enormous volume this can be done only with the cooperation of the public. In a bulletin issued by the postoffice department it is requested that patrons SHOP NOW and MAIL EARLY for early delivery. It already is not early so don't delay another day but get your parcels in the mail right away. Give the postal clerks a chance and they will do their parts. Ask your postoffice relative to packing, shipping and a number of other things patrons of the postoffice should know.

Fine large Christmas trees have been placed in front of the business places of Grayling. They will remain there until after New Years. Now a little new snow to clean up the discolored snow and Michigan avenue will have a real "Christmas" appearance. Its woody appearance would, we believe, even attract the wild rabbits. In a few days the community tree will be adding to the scene.

Last Tuesday evening a goodly number of friends gathered at the home of Mrs. S. B. Wakeley to help her celebrate her birthday. Cookies and pinocle were enjoyed by all. Kenneth Clise won the first prize for pinocle and Gale Clise the consolation. Mrs. Dewey Palmer won the prize for cookie. A very nice lunch was served. Mrs. Wakeley received many very nice gifts and the best wishes of all her guests for many more birthdays.

Mr. Hagie, photographer, who is operating a studio in the Avalanche building for several weeks, urges that those desiring portraits for Christmas gifts make their appointments at once. His work is highly commendable, and as he will be here only a limited time, those desiring photographs should take advantage of this opportunity while he is in Grayling. Mr. Hagie says those desiring after Christmas delivery should have photographs taken before Christmas.

Few cities the size of Grayling present as fine a lot of Christmas advertising as our merchants are doing in the Avalanche this week. Every advertisement offers good suggestions and anyone intending to purchase articles for Christmas gifts should easily be able to profit by carefully reading over every advertisement. There never was a time in the history of Grayling when the merchants presented finer and more desirable stocks of holiday goods. After reading the advertising, visit their places of business and enjoy looking over their displays. You will be welcome whether you wish to buy or not.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moshier were agreeably surprised last evening when thirty-five of their friends went to their home to spend the evening. Pinocle and pedro were enjoyed. Mrs. Neal Matthews and George A. Colten winning the prizes for pinocle, and Mrs. Sherman Neal and Roy Wolcott for pedro. A pot luck lunch was enjoyed. The Moshier family are leaving Saturday for Florida and other points to spend the winter and their friends took this occasion to spend an evening with them before their departure.

After a week of snowy weather attended by freezing temperatures, the weather moderated last of last week and since that time the snow has gradually melted away until, bare earth peeks thru at many places. There must have been 18 inches of snow before the thaw began, and the streets had to be plowed out. The sun had been conspicuous by its absence most of time for the last month but Tuesday it shown with perfect splendor. There is still plenty of snow on the sides and center of Main street where the plow had heaped it up. Now the goose-bone prophet predicts a green Christmas. Maybe yes? Maybe no? Well, let come what will.

A rousing meeting of the I. O. O. F. Encampment was held in Grayling last Saturday night with a large attendance of local members together with many from Midland, Bay City, Roscommon and other places. That evening a number of local members together with some outsiders received the initiatory degree of that branch of the Oddfellows. The local candidates were Malcolm McLeod, Earl Annis, Sam Smith, Clarence Robertson, Robert and Gene King. Following the initiation a fine supper was enjoyed and the committee highly complimented for its being so excellent. This said it was the wee hours of the next morning before members of the kitchen committee got things finely cleared away and got home to their slumbers. A number of Grand lodge officers were present and the Midland degree team put on the degree work. There were about 70 in all present and those from out of town who came during the day were entertained at supper at Bugby's restaurant.

Axel Peterson, newly elected county clerk, doesn't intend to go into office ignorant of its duties. He is spending the month of December in the office and being coached by Clerk Chas. Glerke, and when January 1st comes he will be prepared to go right ahead with the work without its interruption. Mrs. Eva Reagan, the new register of deeds too is spending some time getting acquainted with her new duties and Andy Hart is giving her all the information he can. Such work as that of county clerk and register to one unfamiliar with it is quite complicated and is such as requires exactness and the fact that these two retiring officers are giving their assistance to the new incoming officers is certainly commendable. It shows the right spirit. And it certainly is the sensible thing to do for the new officers to study up on their new duties. It won't be long now before there will be new incumbents in these offices and in the office of prosecuting attorney, when Marius Insley will succeed Merle F. Nellist.

GIVE BENEFIT BRIDGE PARTY

For the benefit of the Charity fund of the Woman's club, Mrs. A. J. Joseph, Mrs. Fred Alexander and Mrs. Emil Giegling were hostesses at a benefit bridge party Tuesday evening. Nine tables were filled for the game. Mrs. Marius Hanson and Mr. Oscar Hanson having high score and Miss Thieme and Mr. M. A. Bates the consolation scores.

The affair was most delightful and no doubt the ladies were able to turn over a neat sum to the Charity fund which represents a very worthy object.

MUST HAVE PROPERTY OWNER'S PERMIT TO TRAP

It is as necessary for a trapper to obtain the consent of the owner of property before he may set his traps as it is necessary to obtain the property owner's consent before one may hunt.

"Trapping" is considered as a "property interest" by the office of the Attorney General in a ruling made at the request of the Department of Conservation. The trapper is obligated to obtain consent of the property owner before he may operate.

This consent, the ruling says, must be obtained from the owner of land, whether traps are to be laid on the land in county drains flowing through this land; in streams bordering on the land or in lakes abutting the land. A former ruling says that the owner of land bordering on a navigable stream owns to the middle thread of that stream; that he controls the right of trapping on the upland, the land covered by water, and the ice covering the water.

In notifying trappers of the ruling of the Attorney General's office, the Law Enforcement Division of the Conservation Department reminded them that all trapping laws remain unchanged from last year. It is necessary for all trappers to report to the Department, within five days of the close of any trapping season, the kind and quantity of furs on hand. This rule is also applicable to those hunting for fur-bearing animals. The raccoon hunting season was November 1 to 15, by November 20 all those killing raccoons should have reported the number of raccoon hides in their possession on the closing date of the season. With this report filed the furs may be retained in possession as long as desired.

Trappers are not required to attach permits to shipments of furs, whether within or outside the state. All that the law requires is that the mark on the outside of the package the kinds and quantities of furs in the package, and his return address. Fur dealers must attach a yellow permit tag to all shipments of furs leaving the state. These tags are obtained from the local conservation officer or from the Department office at Lansing. Each shipment must be inspected by the local conservation officer before the tag may be attached.

HUNTER KILLS TAGGED DEER

The Conservation Department has received the first return on tagged deer.

Last winter the game division started its first deer tagging operations. In the upper peninsula a buck and a doe were tagged. The buck acquired a metal tag in one ear when it ventured into a box trap set at Blaney in Scholersburg Township. This same buck was killed during the open season in November, seventeen miles from the place where it was tagged eleven months earlier. If the doe met a similar fate, no one has reported it.

The further tagging of other animals in the lower peninsula has failed to bring returns to date.

5,775 DEER BROUGHT ACROSS STRAITS

Conservation officers located at Mackinaw City and St. Ignace report the following game and predatory animals transported south up to December 1st: 5,775 deer; 11 coyotes; 9 timber wolves; 47 bear; and 8 bobcats.

The deer brought across the Straits represent about one-third of the total kill, according to the Conservation Department, and of course this number does not include those taken out through Wisconsin, or those killed and kept within the upper peninsula and the twelve counties in the lower peninsula which are open to deer and bear hunting.

The "break" comes to those not easily broken.

PAYS 25c FOR MINK CARCASS

The recent request for raccoon and mink carcasses by the Dept. of Zoology of the University of Michigan has met with a hearty response from the hunters and trappers. The University has already received an adequate supply of raccoon viscera, but they are still in need of more mink carcasses. The University will continue to pay 25 cents for each mink carcass received.

After the skin has been removed, the carcasses should be frozen, securely wrapped in crumpled paper to absorb leakage, and shipped express collect to Department of Zoology, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, attention Mr. Aeneas Shipper should be careful to write their names and addresses on the outside of each package.

WASHINGTON COMMENTS

The Treasury Department has put a stop to the importation of convict-made goods. The regulation applies to all countries, which gives Soviet Russia nothing to complain about. Incidentally, why should the United States not be free to discriminate in its own favor, against any specified country, if it saw fit to do so?

In a state that limits election expenses to fifty thousand dollars, a candidate for office is said to have spent that sum, and his friends are reported to have laid out as much more. Well, that is different.

The papers state that Mussolini has chosen his successor. It is probable that death alone will make a successor necessary, and thereby the Premier may be saved a rude jolt. Successors sometimes succeed to the office of their patron, and then use their own judgment.

It is now settled law that persons charged with the reckless driving of automobiles are entitled to a jury trial. The decision turned upon the point that such conduct was anything but a petty offense. This is an instance in which good sense and good law have joined hands.

NEWS & COMMENTS FROM WASHINGTON

(By Congressman Roy O. Woodruff Tenth Michigan District.)

Congress convened on Monday, December 1. The House of Representatives has already passed the Treasury and Post Office Department appropriation bill and sent it to the Senate. The fact that the House completed bills of this character in so short a time is indication that this branch of Congress can operate efficiently when necessary.

On the opening day, I introduced a bill invoking the powers of the Federal Government under the Commerce clause of the Constitution to aid the states in suppressing racketeering, kidnapping, hi-jacking, murder and other crimes. These activities are carried on by highly organized gangs and racketeers, and many of these activities extend across state lines. These organizations have millions of dollars at their command, are apparently able to either intimidate or buy local authorities, and as a result operate wherever they please, whenever they please and against whom they please. The local authorities seem either unable, or unwilling, to curb them and consequently a state of war between organized society and organized crime exists.

The activities of these gangsters take many different forms. In New York City, for instance, the racketeer collects his tribute from the milk industry upon which the city relies for food and to feed the babies; he collected tribute from the undertakers of the city, and in addition to this is rapidly extending his operations to many lines of legitimate business.

When criminals become so powerful that they can, with apparent impunity, collect tribute from a person from the cradle to the grave, it is high time every authority in the land be invoked to curb them. The income of these criminals is variously estimated at from two to four billion dollars annually, every dollar of which ultimately comes from the pockets of the average American citizen. Even the people on the farm, while they perhaps do not realize it, are today paying their share of this tribute to organized crime.

My bill gives to the Federal Government the authority it does not now have to participate with the city and state authorities in putting an end to this intolerable condition. The police power of the city ends at the boundary lines of that city; the authority of the state ends at the boundary lines of that state. The Federal legal arm is a long one and reaches into every corner of our land. The authority of the Federal Government ends only at the boundary lines of our most distant possessions. Obviously, the Federal Government is better equipped to handle this situation than the state or city authorities could possibly be. The penalties carried in my bill are, in case of murder resulting from such criminal activities, life imprisonment or death at the discretion of the trial judge. Lesser penalties are provided for and will be fixed by the Federal Judge for lesser crimes.

The only objection which has been or can be raised to this proposed legislation is that of the theorist who believes the Government should leave prosecution of criminals to the city and state authorities. They hold that it is not the province of the Federal Government to assume any of these responsibilities. That theory is fine and should be followed, provided always that the city and state authorities are capable of properly assuming all these responsibilities. But, it must be apparent to even the most confirmed theorist that racketeer and gangster activities are increasing rapidly and that the city and state authorities are making no progress whatsoever toward curbing them. It must be apparent also that unless some additional authority is invoked it will be only a comparatively short time until these racketeering activities will reach into every line of industry and we will have Government by the criminal class, rather than Government by the law-abiding. In a situation like this it seems to me that theory must necessarily give way to cold facts and necessity.

ONLY KONJOLA DID ANY GOOD

Tried Many Medicines in Vain—Then Discovered Konjola. Tells How New Medicine Brought Relief

MR. WALTER BOND

"Konjola is worthy of my highest praise," said Mr. Walter Bond, 919 East Grand Boulevard, Detroit. "For a whole year my system was steadily going down hill. I lost weight and strength; I lacked energy and vitality, and always had a tired feeling. My nerves were on edge constantly. I tried many medicines before I found Konjola.

"The very first bottle of Konjola gave me encouragement. I have taken five bottles and have regained all my lost weight; I feel stronger and better in every way, and I sleep soundly. I am more than pleased with the results Konjola gave."

Konjola is free from alcohol, heart-depressing chemicals, and nerve-deadening drugs. Konjola is pure medicine, every drop, and every drop works. Try Konjola now—today.

Konjola is sold in Grayling, Michigan at the Mac & Gidley drug store and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire nation.

Anticipation

Who can contemplate Christmas without a thrill in their souls? We marvel, as we anticipate this event of the year, at that audacious faith which Christianity brought into the world, a faith that out of the brute inheritance of hatred and strife, an age of peace should dawn upon the earth. Although we have passed through the most tragic war of history, men are listening this Christmas time and over the world they are hearing the song of the angels. And the song is a song of peace and good-will. Probably our greatest service this Christmas time is to listen well so that during the year 1931 we can sing some of the glad notes of this song into the discord of human relationships. At least there is no greater sin which we can commit than that sin against the fellowships of life. Such sin draws out the harmony of the angels' song.

WASHINGTON CURRENT COMMENT

Mr. Hoover thinks that the suppression of gang work and racketeering is something that the states will have to handle, without federal aid. The consensus of editorial comment is that his attitude is proper, in view of the doctrine of states rights, and considering that the police power remains with the states, under the constitution.

A mob of communists thronged the Capitol at Washington a few days ago, and seven were taken in charge by the police. The names of five have an unfamiliar ring in ears accustomed to English speech. The circumstance is no reflection on the millions of foreign born who have endured the heat and burden of many a weary day to put America foremost among the nations of the earth, but it does indicate that Redism is a plant not especially adapted to American soil.

The country is using twice as much green food as it did seven years ago. Things have arrived at such a pass that no man can be sure, at any season of the year, that he will not find a mess of spinach on the table, at the close of a trying day.

Cold weather has been getting in its work east of the Mississippi. Reported deaths from freezing number about forty. In a fairly well-defined area, there was an unseasonably heavy snow fall. As usual, the Canadian northwest came forward with the record low temperatures.

The President spent Thanksgiving Day much as a Georgia or Nebraska farmer might have done. There was some work to do in the morning, and then church. One of the boys was home from school, and friends came in to help eat the turkey. Nothing was given out about trips to the icebox for a cold slice or two in the evening.

The toll of lives taken by aviation has been unusually heavy during the past ten days. There has been hardly a daily newspaper-issue in which one or more crashes have not been reported.

A prominent German banker says that hard times in America, and elsewhere, are due to the fact that the Fatherland is being called upon to pay up, and cannot. His line of reasoning contains some gaps which the American reader has difficulty in filling.

The Nobel peace prize has been awarded to Frank B. Kellogg, who worked his way up from a place of lowly labor as a lad, to a position as Secretary of State, and to prominence as Minister to Great Britain from the United States.

The American Construction Council is urging the rebuilding of slums and densely populated portions of large cities. The movement appears to be of international significance. London is considering a plan whereby its tenement sections can be wiped out in five years. If anyone doubts that the great English city has made an advance in housing conditions during the past 50 years, he should review the pictures of Hogarth. Much has been accomplished, but much remains to be done.

The Prince of Wales helped the American Society keep the day on the 27th in London. Considering his very human instincts, one is not surprised to note that he selected Col. Lindbergh, and Bobby Jones, the golfer, for special mention.

For the benefit of those who keep up to date on current events, it is here noted that an application has been filed for a reduction of the tariff on bamboo-handled tooth

The Supreme Court of the United States finds that the moving picture business is a trust. It is a trust otherwise than in a legal way, in that it has power to mold the morals and regulate the viewpoint of millions. Such a trust should not be violated.

A Georgia grand-daddy calls up Atlanta from Australia, to tell the small folk that he will be home for Christmas. Since this is the Thanksgiving season, let us give thanks that sentiment is not quite dead.

A Jersey racketeer and bootlegger leaves an estate of four hundred thousand dollars. America is still the land of promise and opportunity.

THE MAYTAG

The Maytag washer was for 7 years the world's leader in quality and service; and in 1929-30 sold more than half of the total of all washers sold. They are going to continue to manufacture and sell this quality washer for those that look for quality first; but the general public demands a washer to sell for $100.00 or less because a few companies have started this price regardless to quality. Maytag also started to build a machine of this class to sell for $92.50, electric, but in this new washer still it has many of its qualities far superior for this class.

Makes a fine Xmas gift. One week's washing free. Easy terms or premium for cash. Write or phone Maytag dealer, Minn. Orrin Kurtz, Fairview.
